GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

In common with other horsemen who have watched the career of J. Reiff in France, jockey C. Thorpe says that he saw nothing wrong with the riding of the boy now under the ban of the French Jockey Club and fighting for a chance to continue his career in the saddle. "I watched Reiff all season," Thorpe said, "and I never saw anything wrong with his riding. He led all the jockeys in France and his work in the saddle was perfect. The Frenchmen could not find any fault with his riding, but I guess they thought he was getting around too much after dark, and then they probably were influenced by the numerous stories of pulling. The touts are responsible for all or nearly all the trouble of the American jockeys riding on the other side. You see, the Americans are the most successful riders, and the successful boy always has enemies who are only too willing to feed any prejudice there may be against him. The tout, of course, has to tell his little story. In order to land his man he tells him that he is intimate with such and such a jockey, and the successful jockey is the only one that the tout links his name with. That means the American jockey. When the tout happens to be an American and he says that his countryman is going to pull a horse to let another win, and the race results as the tout foretold—why, there is a bad case against the jockey, and it does not matter how innocent he may be or how hard he may have tried to win. I never saw a better rider than Reiff, and I don't believe a boy could have so many winning mounts as he had last season and be crooked. It seems impossible. But I guess his goose is cooked. It doesn't look as if he would get back again, and I'm sorry for that, because he is a great rider."

The prospects for a big field of high-class three-year-olds in the Derby to be run at Cumberland Park, Nashville, are very bright according to reports from that city. The entries to this event will probably close on January 17, as will the entries to the other stakes. At the present time there is enough material located at Cumberland Park to select a field of first-class Derby candidates. The management expects at least one hundred nominations, the fees of which will swell the Derby to the value of $5,000 or more.

J. A. Drake, the Chicago turfman, will probably depend on at least one of the four which he will enter. Mr. Wishard, who trains for Drake, has already said that he would nominate Savable, this year's Futurity winner; Von Rouse, High Chancellor, besides one other. In the handicap, Drake's colors will be represented by the American Derby winner, Wyeth and by Runnels. Both of these horses will be prepared for the early handicaps.

W. W. Darden & Co. will also have three to represent them—namely, J. Sidney Walker, Monsieur Beaucaire and Sioux Chief. William Gerst will have Fore and Aft; Frank Bruhns will send Harding to the post; George Hendrie has Reservation. In fact, from present indications, the race will prove to be the best run up to the American Derby.

When asked recently if Savable would be sent to Memphis to try for the Tennessee Derby, Mr. Wishard said that he did not think he would. He said that he would declare the son of Salvator out of the Memphis classic, and that it was not likely that the Drake colors would be represented at Montgomery Park.

There will be but a few horses go to Memphis from Nashville, and so far there is only one Derby candidate that will try conclusions with the Bluff City horsemen. William Gerst will give Fore and Aft a special preparation for the Tennessee Derby.

The stables of Woodford Clay and Turney Brothers will be shipped to Cumberland Park from Kentucky the latter part of January, to be prepared for the 1903 campaign. Secretary Russwurm has received letters from both of these stables, saying that they would be there.

Jockey "Skeets" Martin in a recent talk with a Daily America representative had this to say:

"Of course you know that I am going to ride for Mr. W. C. Whitney in England. He will have a fine stable over there, and I think his horses will be able to cope with any on the British turf next season.

"Why is there all this furor because 'Danny' Maher has denied that he ever rode for King Edward? In following the daily races has any American ever heard of Maher having a leg up on the king's horses? If he has the report was groundless. Jones was the only jockey that piloted King Edward's horses last season.

"I partially agree with Maher when he says that the English thoroughbred is superior to the Yankee horse. The reason for this is that there is more breeding in England than in America and the colts there are not broken in as early as they are here. Taking everything into consideration, however, America can feel proud of her horses. They are speedy and are capable of going a long journey with heavy weight up and making good time at that.

"I like England and also the manner in which racing is conducted there. The stewards consider all matters impartially and whenever a horse owner or jockey is suspended they fully deserve it.

"I have made no plans for riding in America in the future, and so long as I am pleased with England and the racing methods over there I will ride in that country—provided they want me."

Large entries have been made in several of the Coney Island Jockey Club's stakes which closed recently. The Tidal, for three-year-olds, in 1904, received 134; The Mermaid, 128 entries; the Lawrence Realization, 76 yearling entries, while it had previously received 233 foal entries: The Great Filly Stakes, 261; The Century, 142, and the Annual Champion, 62 yearling entries. The foal entries in this event numbered 211. The Lawrence Realization for 1905 received 104 foal nominations and the Annual Champion for the same year 105 yearling entries.

James R. Keene reports the death of the bay colt by Kingston—Onoma, foaled in 1902, while the firm of J. R. & F. P. Keene has lost by death the following foals of 1902: Brown filly, by Kingston—Citronella; bay or brown colt, by Kingston—Syrabelle; chestnut colt, by Kingston—Harpsichord; chestnut colt, by St. Leonards—Illogical; bay colt, by St. Leonards—St. Cypria; brown filly, by Ben Brush—Mere Hill; bay or brown colt, by Ben Brush—Fair Vision; chestnut colt, by Horoscope—Fingal. W. C. Whitney has lost the yearling colt by Longflight—Mannie Gray, the latter a sister of the great Domino August Belmont has lost the filly High Game, by Hastings—Her Grace, a foal of 1902.

The racing world received a surprise last Monday at New Orleans with the announcement that John W. Schorr has sold to Sam Hildreth the entire string that he has been racing there, with the exception of Ordnung and two yearlings. This means one of the most useful stables in training there, and for their new owner there seems to be some rich profits ahead. The price for the lot is said to be $12,000, and for this he gets John W. Peters, Harry Wilson, Sarner, Commissioner Forster, Leviathan, Major Tenny, Ravenspur, Nicolette and C. B. Campbell. The reason given by Mr. Schorr for the sale is that the extensive string that he has in training at Montgomery Park, Memphis, requires all his attention. He has thirty-six horses wintering there, the majority of which are yearlings. The fact that he was without a rider at New Orleans also influences Mr. Schorr to sell. He telegraphed to Bullman to come on from California last week, but received no reply.

The stable while racing at New Orleans has had several races thrown away through bad rides, and the clearing out is merely a sale earlier than intended, for when he shipped there the idea was to race them until their merit had been shown and then dispose of them. The good form shown by the horses since the meeting opened, brought several offers, but Hildreth asked for a price on the lot, and when it was named accepted it. The purchase was made as a speculation, as Hildreth's idea is to sell any or all when his terms are met, that is to say, when he can see a fair profit for his investment. With the transfer of the horses went their stake engagements, which enhances their value considerably.

The report is still in circulation that Philip J. Dwyer will assume the management of the Sullivan-McCarren track at Jamaica. When asked about the matter last Saturday Mr. Dwyer is quoted as saying:

"I have not given the matter much attention. I doubt if I will have any leisure from the duties imposed upon me as president of the Brooklyn Jockey Club to devote to the inaugural meeting of the new track. The men who are behind the venture at Jamaica are personal friends of mine and I wish them every success. If they need any assistance from me they will probably let me know."

When the late W. H. Clark died Mr. Dwyer assumed the management of the Empire City track and ran a successful meeting there, but the task was so great that he advised that future meetings should be abandoned. Mr. Dwyer has made a phenomenal success of the Gravesend track, and if he should be induced to take hold of the new track at Jamaica the success of that venture would be regarded as a foregone conclusion.

In addition to Lucien Lyne, the Keenes will have another American jockey handle their horses in England next season. Young Milburn, a very promising apprentice who did well on the eastern tracks the latter part of the season just closed, and who is now riding cleverly at New Orleans, says that he will soon go to the other side to be with trainer Matt Allen. With Lyne in Europe, there is some speculation as to who will ride for the Keenes over here. Trainer Rowe has already corralled Gannon, who is doing remarkable work at New Orleans, and also has the apprentices Waugh and Force. Neither Spencer nor Shaw will ride for the Keenes next year, but Rowe may pick up some good lightweight between now and spring.

Jockey Henry Spencer, who has been spending a month in Texas with Nash Turner on a hunting trip, arrived at New Orleans last Sunday and spent the afternoon at the Fair Grounds. Spencer is on his way to Hot Springs, and dropped off to see his brother, L. Spencer, who is riding for Barney Schreiber. Spencer will remain at Hot Springs until the time arrives for his departure for France. He will go direct from the Springs to New York and then sail for the other side. Turner will be at New Orleans some time next month for a few days. He will then leave for New York, where he will remain a month. Both Spencer and Turner will ride in France next year.

Sire Brothers, the New York theatrical men, have bought of Dr. J. D. Neet, Kindergarten Stud, Versailles, Ky., for $7,500, six yearling thoroughbreds, which they will race the coming season. The lot consists of five colts and fillies by Handsome, the son of Hanover, which won the Hyde Park Stakes in Ed Corrigan's colors, and one filly by Top Gallant. They were shipped to New York last Monday, together with three coming two-year-olds, owned by W. Showalter, of Box fame. This trio was sent to the stable of Ed Graves at Gravesend.

Davy Johnson thinks he has a world beater in his yearling colt Jacquin, by Knight of the Thistle—Lady Alice, for which he paid $5,000. Jacquin has a phenomenal turn of speed, having shown eighths as fast as 11⅕ seconds. He is engaged in all the big two-year-old stakes to be run on the metropolitan circuit next season.

HAS NOT RETIRED.

In selling to his partner, Herman B. Duryea, his half interest in the Mirthful colt, Acefull, now in England, it appears that Harry Payne Whitney has no intention of retiring from the turf. The statement that young Mr. Whitney would retire from active racing could not be accepted by turfmen who knew of the unbounded enthusiasm and genuine love which he has for the sport. A boy with a new toy is not so happy by one-half as is Harry Payne Whitney when a horse bearing his colors or the colors of his father gets home in front. Therefore it was that the report of his retirement seemed improbable on the face of it. The story had its origin in the announcement made recently that Mr. Whitney had sold to Mr. Duryea his half interest in Acefull, which was shipped to England at the close of the Morris Park meeting and which will be prepared for the Derby by John Huggins, the trainer of the English division of the elder Whitney's racing establishment. The story of the reason for the sale is an interesting one, and, moreover, one that, in the opinion of many turfmen, reflects great credit on the judgment of young Mr. Whitney. Until the running of the C[illegible]pagne Stakes Mr. Whitney, it seems, looked [illegible]n favor on the plan of shipping Acefull to England, but the defeat of the colt in that race convinced him that Acefull was not a Derby horse. Mr. Duryea, on the other hand, was bent on having a try for the Derby with Acefull, and the young owners, agreeing to disagree, Mr. Whitney sold his half interest in Acefull to his partner. Despite the fact that Enoch Wishard, who knows the course and the colt, and that John Madden, who developed him, believe Acefull to be of Derby caliber, there are any number of horsemen who hold a contrary opinion and who will not change their views unless the result of the race should prove them to be in the wrong. Acefull, they say, is more likely to develop into a first-class sprinter than into a distance horse, and, in support of their views they point to his high action. If Mr. Duryea's estimate of the colt, backed as it is by the opinion of such shrewd horsemen as John Madden and Enoch Wishard, should prove to be the correct one American turfmen of all classes will join in congratulating him, and the congratulations of none will be more sincere or more hearty than will be those of Harry Payne Whitney. Mr. Duryea offered additional evidence of the high hopes which he entertains of Acefull by entering the colt in the Champion Stakes, to be run at the second October meeting at Newmarket.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Ed Corrigan has arrived at New Orleans from Kansas City, where he has been looking over the ground with a view of establishing a racing plant there. This is Mr. Corrigan's first visit to New Orleans in a number of years, and this will be the first season he has ever raced his horses at the Crescent City tracks.

David Sloan, former owner of Gold Heels, will sail for France on December 18. During the season of 1902 he trained a large stable of race horses for a noted French turfman, and won many races. McGinn, who was well-known on the American turf, rode for Sloan, and Sloan has offered W. O'Connor a good sum for second call on his services.

Secretary Clark, of the Crescent City Jocky Club, has arranged to turn the infield into a training ground. The old steeplechase course will be marked out, and the course kept in good condition. This will enable horsemen to keep their animals fit when the track is in bad shape.

"Skeets" Martin, who will ride for W. C. Whitney in England next year and who has been dangerously ill in New York City, has been pronounced out of danger by his physicians at the Hotel Cadillac. Few knew that Martin was [illegible]ill.

Went to post at 2:02. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Flora Levy outbroke the others and showed the most early speed, worked her way to the outside and when she got on the path opened up a winning gap. Marco was easily the best of the others and was hustled along all the way, but was forced off the path most of the trip by Cologne II. Pirate finished well and drew away from the others in the stretch run. War Cry seemingly could not raise a good gallop in the going.

Went to post at 2:31. At post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Aline S. began slowly and went through her field on the extreme outside, took command without much effort and was going away in the stretch run. Crescent City was off running, but Miller took him off the path and he was tiring at the end. Lady Brockway was under punishment all through the last quarter and outgamed Mathilde when it came to a drive. The latter can do better. Dr. McNally and Sister Kate II. stumbled when rounding the far turn.

Winner—B. h, by Bob Carter—Dutch Sis (trained by J. Phillips).

Went to post at 3:02. At post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won ridden out; second easily. Dutch Carter caught Miss Shanley tiring in the stretch run and took command at the furlong post, but had to be hustled along at the end. Miss Shanley showed the most early speed, but Wainwright took her off the path when entering the homestretch and she sprawled. She then came again at the end when she got the path. Lissome was hustled along all the way, but got in a jam at the start and was knocked back. Willard J. was bumped into and crowded back while rounding the first turn. Welcome Light got off best and was on the path all the way, displayed the most early speed, but was forced to do his best at the end to stall off Tom Maybin. The latter finished off the path and was under a drive all of the last quarter. Floyd K. finished well and outgamed Aurie B. when the final drive came. Lord Touchwood began slowly and was cut off at the first turn and Hoar had to pull him up. Hedge was also interfered with and went to his knees. Little Adele and Florestan were outrun all the way.

Winner—B. g, by Chorister—Zodiac (trained by E. Trotter).

Went to post at 3:02. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Scorpio got off flying and led all the way. Gannon took him across the track to the outside path and was doing his best at the end to stall off Golden Rule. Treanor was of no help to the latter when it came to a drive and finished with his feet out of the stirrups. Whiskey King was crowded back at the start and was under a drive all of the last furlong. Hoar lost one of his stirrups in the race. It was a bad looking ride on Okla. Booker brought her in deep going while rounding the far turn in an attempt to pass Whiskey King. Went to post at 4:39. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Joe Lesser and Mosketo hugged the inner rail for the first quarter and cut across the track to the outside at the turn into the backstretch. This move saved them a lot of ground. Joe Lesser showed the most speed and raced Mosketo to defeat and had a lot left at the finish. Mosketo ran well and was doing his best all the way. Georgia Gardner was on the path all the last six furlongs and saved third money thereby. It was a bad looking ride on Moabina. Hicks had the path, but took his mount into the heavy going and kept her there. Prince Blazes was put against the fence on the backstretch. Treanor fell off and Prince Blazes then ran away a mile and pulled up lame.

Went to post at 2:02. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Bogus Bill was lucky, had clear sailing, closed up fast and strong and caught Guida napping at the end. The latter was much the best and displayed a fine turn of speed, took a long and apparently winning lead on the far turn and, under a weak ride, swerved over to the rails at the end, thereby losing. Vohicer, under a drive, was prominent for the first half, but tired in the stretch. Sam Lazarus Esq. closed up much ground in the last half. Rubino, away badly, quit after early speed because his saddle slipped.

Time, 1:14¼.

Winner—B. g, by Captain Al—Lady Intruder (trained by S. F. Brown).

Went to post at 2:58. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Amasa, a quick beginner, beat the gate and made most of his advantage. A vigorous finish enabled him to beat much the best horse in Oro Viva. The latter got away badly, but moved up fast and finished gamely. Onyx II. held on well and has improved greatly. Jim Gore II. lacked his usual early speed and also failed to stay. Bucolic, away badly, rushed into prominence next to the rail, was badly shut off on the far turn and given a very bad ride. Golden Cottage was last at the start and tired right at the end after closing a gap.

Scratched—(36515)St. Phillipina, 105; 36629 Montoya, 102; 36630 Mr. Dingle, 94.

Overweights—Amasa, 2 pounds; Onyx II., 3.

Winner—Br. c, by Sain—Ada Reese (trained by C. T. Patterson).

Went to post at 3:22. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Corrigan broke flatfooted and worked a rough journey to the stretch, where, with clear sailing, he forged to the front cantering and was much the best. The Fretter followed Kenilworth's fast pace closely and outstayed him after a long hard drive. Kenilworth put up a brilliant effort at the weights and only succumbed in the last fifty yards under an inadequate ride. Illowaho was closing up strongly and ran a good race under unfavorable conditions. Flush of Gold tired after going a half and could not stride freely in the going.

Scratched—36465 Vesuvian, 117.

Corrigan, show, 1 to 5. The Fretter, show, 1 to 5. The entry, show, out. Kenilworth, show, 1 to 4.

Time, 24¾, 51, 1:18, 1:46, 1:50.

Winner—Br. m, by Artillery—Duchess of Towers (trained by C. W. Carroll).

Went to post at 3:42. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won easing up; second driving. Artilla, off in her stride, followed Antolee closely to the stretch, where she ran past her with ease and was probably best. She is in great form now and ran the first good race of her career on a muddy track. Antolee stole a long lead on the first turn and ran in surprisingly improved form. Galanthus, after being nearly left, took the extreme outside and had no chance with his ride. Expedient's bad race was foreshadowed in the betting and he disliked the going. Ignacio was handicapped in the going.

Scratched—36561 Gawaine, 106; 36634 2 Bessie McCarthy, 102.

Overweights—Artilla, 1 pound.

Artilla, show, 2 to 5. Antolee, show, 4 to 5. Galanthus, show, 1 to 4.

Winner—Ch. f, by Crighton—Nellie Bell (trained by W. L. Oliver).

Went to post at 4:21. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Gaviota's unexpected good start, she getting away in her stride, combined with vigorous tactics in keeping her up in the first part of the race, made the result when in the stretch a foregone conclusion, she making good in the last quarter in decisive fashion. Gold Van broke slowly, was outrun early and made a wide stretch turn, after which he closed up fast. He is high actioned and was sprawling early, therefore. His race was high class. Arabo made the running to the stretch well in hand, but was unable to withstand the winner's strong challenge. Still he stuck to his work gamely and probably disliked the sloppy going. Laura F. M. went a good half. Lady Rowell was prominent for three furlongs.

Scratched—36618 Polonius, 110.

Gaviota, show, out. Gold Van, show, 1 to 4. Arabo show, out.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A. B. Spreckels has sold his good two-year-old Gaviota, daughter of Crighton—Nellie Bell, to W. L. Oliver, the New York turfman who is racing at Ingleside this season. The consideration was said to have been $3,000, with $500 additional if the filly wins a stake. Mr. Spreckels could have sold Gaviota to Burns & Waterhouse if he had chosen to do so at the last State Fair just prior to the Stallion Stake being run off, but refused a tempting offer at that time, preferring to take his chances of winning the rich stake. That his judgment was not at fault was demonstrated by the fine race run by Gaviota, which was only beaten owing to a superior jockey having the mount on Maxnic. Gaviota is a fine looking filly and has shown a liking for a route and an ability to carry weight which should give her a great chance for the California Oaks next spring.

Morinel, the game daughter of Morello—Sunlit, by Monday, has broken down and will soon be sold for a broodmare by the Scoot Brothers, for Morello mares are considered prizes, and this one has won no less than twenty-six races, including a mile in 1:40¼, one and one-eighth miles in 1:53 and one and a quarter miles in 2:07, while her dam is the mother of El Rayo, Sunrise, Sunello and St. Sever.

H. M. Ziegler, ex-owner of Hermis, has sold to H. G. Goode, of Cincinnati, the four-year-old brown filly Harlem Lane, by Kingston—Medusa, by Sensation. Harlem Lane was a good two-year-old in 1900, and later raced well in England as a three-year-old. Goode will campaign her this season before retiring her to the stud.

Information of semi-official character has leaked out at Memphis that jockey J. Woods, who was ruled off at Hawthorne last summer will be reinstated at the next meeting of the Western Jockey Club. It is stated that many prominent horsemen, including P. Dunne, whose horse, J. V. Kirby, was responsible for the downfall of Woods, agreed to indorse Wood's application for reinstatement.

James Rowe, trainer for J. R. Keene, is convalescing from a recent serious operation at a private sanitarium in East Thirty-third street, New York City. His physicians state that unless unexpected complications arise he will be well in a few weeks.
